5 Defendants Defendant Nationstar Mortgage, LLC (“Nationstar”), ACI
6 Worldwide Inc. (“ACI”) and Plaintiffs Brett Padalecki and Dianne Thompson
7 (“Plaintiffs”) (collectively, the “Parties”), by and through their duly authorized
8 undersigned counsel, submit this Joint Status Report pursuant to the Court’s 9 order. In support of this Joint Status Report, the Parties state as follows:

10 On January 21, 2022, the Court granted the Parties’ joint motion to stay 11 this action pending global mediation of several class actions until February 7, 12 2022, at which time the Court ordered the Parties to submit a joint status report to 13 the Court. (See ECF Doc. 40.).

14 On January 31, 2022, the Parties participated in their first global mediation
15 session before the Hon. Jay Gandhi (Ret.). The Parties made substantial progress 16 toward resolution and have mutually agreed to continue settlement discussions 17 over the next three weeks.

18 In light of these continued discussions, the Parties request the Court 19 maintain the current stay of this action. The Parties are filing the same joint 20 status report in the other pending related class actions.

21 The Parties further agree to file another joint status report with the Court
22 by February 28, 2022, to advise the Court on the status of settlement discussions 23 and, if necessary, to request a reset of deadlines.

24 The Parties expressly reserve all defenses, including based on lack of 25 personal jurisdiction, as to all claims that have been or might be later asserted in 26 this action.

27 THEREFORE, The Parties hereby request the Court maintain the current 28 stay of this action. The Parties will report back to the Court by February 28,

1 2022 on the status of the case and, if necessary, to reset the current deadlines.
